

RAW

JILLIAN®

Height: 5-foot-6

From: Louisville, KY

Move over Janet Jackson and Mariah Carey! There's a WWE Diva taking the pop music scene by storm. At 2007's No Way Out pay-per-view Jillian made her WWE singing debut — to a chorus of boos from fans. But that didn't stop her — it motivated the Raw Diva even more. Don't cover your ears just yet, but you can hear Jillian's angelic voice every Monday night, singing her entrance theme just before this sultry siren demonstrates her ample in-ring ability.

RAW

KATIE LEA™

Height: 5-foot-8

From: Chelsea, England

Katie Lea knows what she wants and will do whatever she needs to get it. Trained in her native England, she has mastered her craft and is one of the most dangerous Divas to enter the ring. Leaving the side of her brother Paul, Katie has unleashed her own brand of wickedness on the WWE Universe. One thing is for sure — the other Divas she comes in contact with should be put on notice.

RAW

KELLY KELLY™

Height: 5-foot-5

From: Jacksonville, FL

When she debuted on June 13, 2006, Kelly Kelly became the youngest Diva in WWE. A self-proclaimed exhibitionist, she put on shows dubbed 'Kelly Kelly's Exposé' for fans and won several body competitions.

Since moving over to Raw, this blonde beauty has shown that she is not just a pretty face, competing in the ring with the top Divas in WWE.

RAW

MARYSE™

Height: 5-foot-8

From: Montreal, QC, Canada

Career Highlights: Diva's Champion

Maryse, a finalist in the 2006 edition of the Diva Search competition was drafted on April 13 and joined the Raw roster as one of the Sexiest Women on Television... bringing with her the Divas Championship. She has since shown a vicious side to her personality, and has proven that she is willing to do whatever it takes to stay in the hunt for the Diva's Championship.

RAW SHAWN MICHAELS®

Height: 6-foot-1

Weight: 225 pounds

From: San Antonio, TX

Signature Move: Sweet Chin Music

Career Highlights: WWE Champion, World Heavyweight Champion, Intercontinental Champion, Unified WWE Tag Team Champion, World Tag Team Champion, European Champion, Royal Rumble winner (1995 & 1996)

He's done it all in WWE. The first man to capture the Grand Slam, a two-time Royal Rumble Winner and multiple-time World Champion, it is no wonder they call him, 'The Showstopper'! But you can't measure HBK's career in championships alone. He, along with Triple H, co-founded one of the greatest factions of all time, D-Generation X, whose popularity and anti-establishment philosophy continue to capture the imagination of fans.

A serious back injury put HBK on the sidelines for four years between 1998 and 2002. During that time Michaels healed and overcame personal demons to find peace in his life. Amazingly, he returned to the ring better than ever, defeating Triple H in a Street Fight at SummerSlam, and then eventually winning the World Heavyweight Championship.

The Game and HBK have been the worst of enemies, spilling buckets of blood in one of WWE's most memorable rivalries. But their wars have only made them the best of friends. It's difficult to imagine these DX cohorts teaming with anyone else. Triple H, who does not give praise easily, sums up Michaels' legacy: "If you were to ask me who's the greatest I've ever been in the ring with, that's easy. It's Shawn."

Even after the show finally ends for good, Michaels will still be the Icon . . . the Showstopper . . . the Main Event.

